"Jesus proclaimed the Gospel of the kingdom and cured every disease among the people."

Mt 4:23

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In the Gospel of today,, a Canaanite woman of the pagan territories whose daughter is tormented by a demon makes a request of Jesus to intervene to free her. The audacious and confident insistence of this woman gives Jesus the opportunity to make manifest that the salvation project of God is open to all peoples on earth, to all cultures. Again, today the attitude of God challenges our ideas and habits toward foreigners. The encounter with other peoples on earth will make us discover that we do not have a monopoly of the faith. The foreigner also has some values to give. This discovery constitutes for us an undeniable enrichment and will make us grow. Let us not forget: Every person who grows makes humanity grow. And when the Church demands reform on immigration, it is a good thing that carries evangelical values.

Vigésimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

En el Evangelio de hoy una mujer cananea le pide a Jesús que tenga compasión de su hija que esta terriblemente atormentada por un demonio. Por medio de la insistencia de esta mujer, Jesús toma esta oportunidad para manifestar que la salvación de Dios esta abierto a todas las personas de la tierra y a todas las culturas. Dios nos hace saber que nosotros no tenemos un monopolio sobre la fe. Las personas extranjeras todos son hijos de Dios también. No debemos olvidar que toda persona que entiende esto es enriquecido. Cuando la iglesia demanda la reforma de inmigración, esto demuestra valores evangélicos.

Vingtième dimanche du temps ordinaire

Dans l'évangile d'aujourd'hui une Cananéenne, des territoires païens, dont la fille est tourmentée par un démon demande à Jésus de la délivrer. L'insistance audacieuse et confiante de la Cananéenne, donne à Jésus l'occasion de manifester que le projet de salut de Dieu s'ouvre à toute les peuples de la terre, à toutes les cultures. Encore aujourd'hui, l'attitude de Dieu ébranle nos conceptions et nos habitudes par rapport aux étrangers. La rencontre avec d'autres peuples de la terre nous fera découvrir que nous n'avons pas le monopole de la foi. L'étranger a aussi des valeurs à nous transmettre. Cette découverte constituera pour nous un indéniable enrichissement et nous fera grandir. Ne l'oublions pas: toute personne qui grandit fait grandir l'humanité. Et lorsque dans l'Eglise on appuie et on demande la réforme de l'immigration, c'est une bonne chose, et qui a valeur évangélique.

A woman came and called out "Have pity on me. My daughter is tormented by a demon." But Jesus did not say a word to her. The woman came and did Jesus homage saying, "Lord, help me." He said in reply, "It is not right to take food of children and throw it to the dogs." She said, "Please, Lord, for even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the tables of their masters." Jesus said in reply, "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish." And the woman's daughter was healed from that hour.

DRAMA ABOUT ST. THERESE

“St. Therese” is a play about the saint known as the Little Flower and will be performed through August 24th at Our Lady of Good Counsel parish hall in Manhattan at 230 East 90th Street. St. Therese of Lisieux, a late 19th-century Carmelite nun, was only 24 when she died of tuberculosis in 1897. Her writings offer a model of sanctity and are regarded as a spiritual masterwork. She was canonized by Pope Pius XI in 1925. The drama was written, composed and directed by Michael Pascal and has been presented internationally. This production focuses on discovering inner peace, joy and faith as well as vocation. It stars actress Fanny Veliz. A relic of St. Therese will be present at each performance. A free-will offering will be taken. For more information, call 212-289-1742. Among St. Therese’s thoughts: “Each day spend some time with God. . . . When one gives time to God, eternity is revealed in every moment.”

Santa Teresa de Lisieux, del siglo 19 una monja Carmelita, solo tenia 24 años cuando murió de tuberculosis en 1897. Todas sus obras de escritura son considerados como obra magistral.
